

THE BLACK GIRLS UNSCRIPTED PLEDGE

I am a Black Girl Unscripted...

The sole author of my life; never bound by the stereotypes, scripts or expectations of others...

I define my own destiny because I am a dynamic being with limitless potential...

*My beauty is not connected to the color of my skin, texture of my hair or shape of my body;
instead, my true beauty is the uniqueness that resides within me...*

I am confident, free and fearless...

I know my self-worth and understand that my presence, spirit and mind is essential to the world...

I breed positivity...

I value sisterhood and work hard to love, support and encourage my sisters...

*I understand that happiness, success and good fortune are not privileges afforded to a few,
but a birthright promised to me...*

I respect the sacrifices of my ancestors and am committed to honoring their legacy...

I refuse to fall into the materialism trap because my heart, soul and spirit has more worth than anything I could ever purchase...

I value my community and work hard to uplift it at every opportunity...

I am imperfectly human; in me you'll find a sweet concoction of strength, love, mystery, intellect, boldness, vulnerability, style, humor, femininity and courage...

Yes, I am powerful and a force to be reckoned with...

I am a Black Girl Unscripted...
